Warm and windy greetings to you.

Restrictions have finally lifted and we are permitted to work from our ETF offices every day! Other restrictions are still in place, but there is more flexibility.

We have been asked if we are OK with the recent unrest between Russia and Ukraine. We are separated by two countries – Germany and Poland. It is about a 16-hour drive to the Ukrainian border. We have remained safe from storms and military threats, but our Ukrainian ETF friends and their families are under distress by the recent attacks.

My friend, colleague and former ETF student, Roman, has asked for prayer to bring hope to his neighbors, to support those in despair and for peace in the hearts of the people. Another student and seminary teacher in Kiev needs wisdom as he speaks with his children about the potential dangers. Many of his colleagues have left the region and the seminary for now, but he has remained.

Please pray for these dear people and others in the region – for hope, courage, and discernment. Please pray also, for the impact this conflict will have throughout Europe on the lives of the people, refugees, economy and exponential gas/heating price increases.

Thanks so much for joining with us financially and in prayer,
 Ron & Sandra Michener
