"Greeting Friends,

The book of James says ... "when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy..." because when our faith is tested our endurance has a chance to grow."

We recently enjoyed a wonderful trip to Dallas (together) where we met up with our other Islands Asia Team for our first face-to-face meeting since the challenges of Covid. We were missing Kettien who couldn't make it from Indonesia but were grateful we could see her on Zoom. It was so encouraging to meet face-to-face.

We had our meetings in the Seed Company offices in the Dallas area. There have been changes in Seed Company in the last year and a half with a new CEO (a dear friend whom we've known since 1981 when we were all younger!), new staff, and new updates to software/programs we use. We took opportunities to be brought up to date on new ways of working. Many a-ha moments!

We also took in a Texas Rangers baseball game, compliments of a colleague with season tickets to share. Greg said something about me yelling too loud. What?!

We are grateful for all the virtual ways of working that have allowed Scripture checking to still go on! Our friends who are doing translation in Maluku have just finished having 1 Corinthians all checked virtually.

Pray for our colleagues who are deciding when best to return "home" to Indonesia following summer in the USA and others deciding how best to remain while trusting in the Lord. Pray for these challenging times to show faith, wisdom and trust. Pray for the Asian countries. The Covid spikes are creating challenges that these countries are ill prepared for. Pray for our national friends there, that God would protect them!
